

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

My Dear Colleagues and Friends:

The summer issue examined 13 papers but only one paper met the high standards of the Journal of Sustainable Development in Africa.

I am delighted to publish this article entitled: “Waste Management Practices as Local Order: Attitudes and Perceptions of Residents in Ashaiman, Ghana.”

The paper embodies both theoretical and applied perspective of sustainable development and sustainability.

Sincerely,

Valentine Udoh James. Ph.D.; CEI; CAQS
Professor of Environmental Management, Planning and Policy
