

JOURNAL OF SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT IN AFRICA (JSDA)

SPRING 2025 ISSUE

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

My Dear Friends and Colleagues:

It gives me a great deal of pleasure to bring you the Spring 2025 Issue of the JOURNAL OF SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT IN AFRICA (JSDA). In keeping with the themes of the JSDA, the articles in the Spring 2025 Issue address matters of great significance to the sustainable development and sustainability of the communities in Africa from theoretical as well as applied perspectives. These articles, most certainly, provide answers to the many concerns and problems confronting African societies and governments as they make progress towards more sustainable and self-sufficient entities.

In reading these articles, one is bound to appreciate the gallant efforts of African people and communities in attempting to achieve self-containment and evade dependency on foreign assistance. We are initially publishing the following articles, but others will be added to this Issue as they clear the rigorous hurdles and standards of our journal.

- 1) EFFORTS OF RESILIENCE CAPACITY IN REDUCING FOOD INSECURITY AMONG INFORMAL MINERAL MINERS IN TIGRAY REGION, ETHIOPIA
- 2) IMPACT OF FOREIGN DIRECT INVESTMENTON CARBON EMISSIONS IN NIGERIA
- 3) INFLUENCE OF COOPERATIVE LOAN ON POVERTY REDUCTION OF COOPERATIVE WOMEN IN ABEOKUTA-NORTH OF OGUN -STATE, NIGERIA
- 4) ANALYSIS OF STAKEHOLDERS INVOLVED IN PHYSICAL PLANNING ADMINISTRATION IN SOUTHWESTERN NIGERIA

We appreciate the support of our readership as we continue to bring you cutting-edge research on sustainable development and sustainability in Africa.

Sincerely,

Valentine Udoh James, Ph.D.: CEI: CAQS
